tween teams from H. B. M. S. Comus and the H. C. C. at 1:30 p. m. today on the old baseball grounds. All those interested in the game are cordially Messrs. Kane and Clive Davies of from Hawaii, where they have been inspecting coffee in the Kona District, so that a match between teams from the H. C. C. and the firm mentioned above will be played on Saturday next.

The Comus team is said to be the strongest that has visited Honolulu in many years. There are six crack batsmen aboard.

A mid-week game will be played between the Comus and H. C. C. teams this week as a return.

Y. M. C. A. Prospectus.

The Y. M. C. A. prospectus is now out, and for completeness and accuracy of information, as well as taste in arrangement, nothing in its line has ever been issued here to surpass it. On the front page are the words: "For the young men of Honolulu." Scattered throughout the prospectus are half-tones of the various rooms in the Y.
M. C. A. and the building itself. The various departments are outlined and facilities stated. Such paragraphs as this are also contained in the prospectus to attract the attention of the young men: "We offer attractions for the spiritual, intellectual, social and physical sides of a man's nature, and our membership is within the reach of young men of all ages, from 10 years old and upward."
